Aggravated Assault-Stabbing

Approximately 0202Hrs., patrol officers from Platoon "A" and Selective Enforcement Unit Officers responded to the 911 call for a fight in the area of W. Vine St. and S. Arch St.

Upon arrival Officers located a 31-year-old New Jersey man suffering from multiple stab wounds in a residence in the 1st Blk S. Arch St. Officers called for medical assistance and began speaking to witnesses. The stabbing victim who has ties to the Lancaster area was transported to an area hospital and is listed in stable condition.

Sgt. Gary McCrady located a subject in the 100Blk S. Arch St. that admitted to him that he stabbed someone. This subject was subsequently brought into the police station and interviewed by Detectives.

As a result of this investigation Det. Manuel Luciano charged:

Michael Rowley Jr. M/21
100Blk E. Walnut St. Lancaster, PA

Rowley is awaiting arraignment at the city police station.

The Bureau of Police are aware that there was a fight or disturbance in the area involving others that led to this stabbing and that this was not a random act. The Bureau of police are also asking if anyone has information to contact the Lancaster Bureau of Police, Detective Luciano at 735-3466 and callers do not have to provide their name.
