Arrest from Stolen Vehicle

Sgt. Kevin Fry of the Lancaster Bureau of Police, during regular patrol, discovered a 2000 Nissan Sentra GXE parked unoccupied in the area of the 300 block of S. Christian Street. Sgt. Fry did a records check on the vehicle and determined that it was reported stolen out of Heidelberg Township, Lebanon County. Sgt. Fry notified Det. Sgt. Gary Mackley of the Bureau's Auto Theft Unit, who along with Det. Bill Breault conducted a surveillance on the stolen vehicle.

After some time, a subject entered the vehicle and drove away. Surveillance was maintained on the stolen Nissan until marked police cruisers were able to make a vehicle stop in the 900 block of S. Duke Street. The driver was identified as:

Clinton Lee Myers, M/52,
400 block of Fremont Street, Lancaster, PA.

Myers was subsequently interviewed and charged with one count of Felony-3 Receiving Stolen Property before MDJ. Kelly Ballentine. Myers was arraigned by MDJ. Denise Cummins and was committed to the Lancaster County Prison in lieu of $ 75,000 straight Bail.
