Arrest of wanted subject

ARRESTED – Shamari Lee Smith M/20
Lancaster, PA

On February 24, 2010, at 1431 hrs., a person contacted the Crime Stoppers tip line with information on the whereabouts of a wanted subject, Shamari Lee Smith. Smith was wanted on outstanding warrants for Simple Assault, Fleeing or Attempting to Elude Police and other summary warrants. Smith has been featured as a wanted person in Crime Stoppers and numerous attempts to locate him had been unsuccessful.

The information from the tipster led officers from the Lancaster City Police to a residence in the 600 block of Columbia Ave. Officers from the Lancaster City Police Patrol Division, C Platoon, responded to the location and secured it. Officers were able to make contact with occupants inside the residence and entered the residence to search for Smith. Smith was located inside and was arrested without incident.

The Lancaster City Police credit the tipster for contacting Crime Stoppers and providing the information that ultimately led to Smith's arrest. Police remind the public that people with information on wanted persons or unsolved investigations may contact your local police department directly or contact Crime Stoppers at 1-800-322-1913. Rewards of up to $1,000 are offered for information leading to the arrest and/ or conviction of persons featured in Crime Stoppers. Callers do not have to give their names to provide information and may remain anonymous.
