Assault of Inmate

0545 hours on Friday the 22nd of October 2010, a Lancaster County Inmate was brutally assaulted by another inmate resulting in multiple serious injuries to the 30-year-old victim's head and face. Lancaster County Prison Guards had to intervene to stop this brutal assault. The victim received immediate medical treatment by the prison's medical staff.

Det. Michael Gerace of the Lancaster Bureau of Police conducted an investigation into this assault and learned that the assailant used a hardened plastic food tray to assault his cell mate during the breakfast time of the morning.

Suspect charged: STEWART, Micah Jermaine, 25-year-old male.

Currently serving a life imprisonment sentence.

As a result of this investigation, Det. Gerace charged Micah J. Stewart with Criminal Attempt (Homicide), Assault by Life Prisoner and Aggravated Assault before MDJ Janice Jimenez. Stewart to be arraigned on said charges by video arraignment from within the prison by MDJ Kelly Ballentine.
