Bank Robbery

At 1:21p.m. January 11, 2012 Lancaster City Police officers were dispatched to Northwest Savings Bank, 922 Columbia Ave, for a robbery which had just occurred. The suspect had already fled prior to police arrival. No weapon was displayed and no one was injured. The suspect passed a note to a female teller, who surrendered an unknown amount of cash from the drawer. The suspect was described as W/M/30's, medium build, wearing a dark colored hooded jacket, a dark blue baseball cap, and light blue jeans. The suspect had a thin moustache and goatee. The suspect fled on foot and was last seen heading south on Rider Ave. Lancaster City Police officers were assisted by Manheim Township Police in searching for the suspect.

Anyone with information regarding this bank robbery should call Lancaster City Police at (717) 735-3300.
