On March 4th, 2011, the Lancaster City Police took a report that a subject (pictured right) was acting suspiciously while inside a local bookstore. This subject made several unwanted comments to a three year old girl at several different locations within the store as she and her mother shopped. The subject left the store before a report was made. The Lancaster City Bureau of Police is requesting the public's help in identifying this subject.

If anyone has information regarding this subject's identity, contact Officer Anthony Weaver at (717) 735-3322, or Lancaster City/Lancaster County Crime Stoppers at 1-800-322-1913. Lancaster City/County Crime Stoppers is offering a reward up to $1000 for information leading to the arrest and/or conviction of the person(s) responsible for the listed crime. Callers can remain anonymous and do not have to give their names.
