Despondent Subject

At 9:37 PM on 08 March 2010, Officers of the Lancaster Bureau of Police Patrol Platoon "A", the Selective Enforcement Unit and the Criminal Investigative Unit responded to a residence in the 1st Block of N Prince St for a male subject who was despondent and had barricaded himself inside his residence. There was mention that the subject had access to a weapon, however, the type of weapon was in question. Officers secured the area, diverting traffic off of the 1st & 100 blocks of N Prince St, the 1st & 100 blocks of N Water St and the 1st, 100 & 200 blocks of W Orange St.

The Lancaster County Emergency Team responded to the scene and the subject exited his residence at 12:27 AM on 09 March 2010. He was transported to a local Hospital where he will undergo evaluation and treatment for mental health issues.

The male subject presented no danger to the public at any time during this incident.
