Prostitution Detail

Three women were arrested for prostitution during a prostitution detail on 25 AUG 2011. The detail was conducted by the Lancaster City Bureau of Police Selective Enforcement Unit (SEU).

In addition to the females arrested during the detail, one male subject was also arrested. The male subject was arrested for theft after he took $20.00 from an Undercover officer and attempted to flee on foot. The subject was stopped and arrested for theft. This subject was known to police and had two (2) outstanding Felony charges for delivery of controlled substances (Cocaine and Marijuana).

The Selective Enforcement Unit initiated the detail in continued response to observations made by concerned residents and business owners. All those arrested made contact with an undercover officer near the 200 block of W. King St.
