Shooting-200 Blk Green St

Shortly before 1:30 am, this morning, July 22nd Officers of the Lancaster Bureau of Police were dispatched to the 200 Blk Green St for a report of a shooting. Upon arrival, Sgt. Kevin Fry and Officers from Patrol Platoon A located three victims in the block, all of whom were suffering from multiple gunshot wounds. The victims (two 18 year olds and a 21 year old), all Lancaster City residents, were conveyed to a local hospital for treatment of their injuries. The 21 year old and one of the 18 year olds was subsequently treated and released and the other 18 year old was admitted.

Officers and detectives interviewed several witnesses and it has been determined preliminarily, that the victims were shot as they stood in this block and a dark colored vehicle was seen leaving the area immediately after the shooting. Camera footage from the Lancaster Community Safety Coalition is currently being checked and reviewed. Detectives continue to interview witnesses and follow up on leads at this time.

Anyone with information is asked to call the Lancaster City Police at 735-3300. Callers do not have to give their names to provide information.
