Shooting at Dorwart and High Sts.

At about 6:00 pm, Sunday evening, March 29th Officers of the Lancaster Bureau of Police were dispatched to the area of High and Dorwart Sts, for a report of gunshots being heard in that area. Shortly after this, as Officers arrived in this area, Lancaster County Radio dispatched that the shooting victim was being taken to a local hospital via a private vehicle. The victim, a 19 year old Lancaster City man, arrived at the hospital and was found to be suffering from a grazing type of gunshot wound to his face.

Officers were able to locate the shooting scene in the area of High and Dorwart Sts, as well as the vehicle that the victim was riding in at the time that the shooting took place. Detectives then processed the crime scene, to include the vehicle, as well as other locations and also interviewed several witnesses.

The preliminary investigation conducted thus far would indicate that a suspect or suspects fired multiple shots at this vehicle, containing the victim and several other occupants, in the area of High and Dorwart Sts, as the vehicle was traveling south on Dorwart St.

Detectives are following up on leads as this news release is being prepared and anyone with information on this shooting is asked to call the Lancaster Bureau of Police at 735-3300. Callers do not have to give their names to provide information.
