Wanted for Homicide-Marietta Ave

INFORMATION PREVIOUSLY RELEASED:

On August 24, 2009, at approx. 1510 hrs., Officers from the Lancaster City Police were dispatched to the 600 block of Marietta Ave for a reported shooting. Officers arrived at the scene and located a male victim, laying in the street. The victim was bleeding from an apparent neck injury and was taken to an area hospital for treatment.

At the hospital, officers learned that the victim had suffered an apparent stab wound and was not shot, as was originally reported to the dispatchers.

The victim subsequently died from his injuries at the hospital. Detectives responded to the scene immediately, interviewed witnesses, collected evidence and followed up on leads. Residents and people who were in the area have been cooperative with the investigation and provided information to the investigators. Preliminary information indicates that there was some sort of altercation prior to the stabbing. This was not a random act of violence.

Victim: Chrishon Johnson-Gray, 20
